The Malaysia Economic and Strategic Outlook Forum is a high level gathering of strategic thinkers, economic experts, business and industry leaders and senior Government officers to discuss the key strategic challenges and key issues facing the nation in the new year as well as to assess the business and investment opportunities. The Forum provides an apt and timely opportunity to feel the pulse of the economy and the tempo of development as well as be updated on emerging trends.

It will provide policy updates and clarifications on the state of the national economy. The Forum is a useful opportunity to exchange views on national development, the economic directions of the economy as well as identify the new opportunities in key sectors. In addition, the Forum will provide opportunities for business interaction and networking. The Forum will also enable participants to have better insights, information and intelligence to make more informed decisions and better strategic plans for their organizations as well as for better risk management.
